

Bellingham Branch of the Mountaineers Intermediate Climbing Course Application

The Bellingham Mountaineers' Basic and Intermediate Climbing Courses are alpine mountaineering courses. These courses emphasize total mountain experiences including non-technical scrambling, rock climbing, snow climbing, and glacier climbing, and more. All field trips and required experience climbs are outside.

Please answer the following questions. Students are selected on the basis of this application and an interview.

Name, age, address, phone number and e-mail address:

Emergency contact information:

Why are you interested in the intermediate level climbing class? :

Do you have any prior medical or first aid training? If yes, please include copies of any current certification cards you have.

Are you a graduate of the Basic Climbing Course in any branch of The Mountaineers? :

Yes No If yes, date of graduation: _____

Are you a graduate of the Crag Climbing Course in any branch of The Mountaineers? :

Yes No If yes, date of graduation: _____

Tell us about your recent climbing experience and training (please attach a climbing resume if you have one, or give specifics on climb dates and your role as leader or follower, swung leads, etc. Please attach another page if needed):

Rock:

Glacier:

Alpine:

Technical Ice:

Describe past activities with The Mountaineers, or other outdoor organizations, including search and rescue organizations if applicable:

Many graduates of Mountaineers classes give back to The Mountaineers through volunteerism. Last year's climbing class, for instance, benefited from over 1,500 volunteer hours, ranging from helping with field trips and climbs to assisting with class administration to performing conservation activities.

Have you volunteered in the past with The Mountaineers or other outdoor organizations? :

What sort of volunteering activities might you be interested in? :

How did you hear about the Bellingham Mountaineers?

Send applications via e-mail to the course registrar by November 30 to bellinghammountaineers@gmail.com